Deaths.

WHITEHOUSE—James Phillip, son of Mr. James Whitehouse, died at the home of his parents near this city on Monday night, aged six years. The little fellow had been a sufferer for some time from an abscess upon the brain and on Monday a surgical operation was performed upon him in hopes that it would afford relief, but death followed in a few hours after. The afflicted parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends and relatives.

Republican Committee.

The Republican County Committee will meet at the Capital Hotel on Monday next, February 4th, at 2:30 p. m.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by PHIL CARPENTER, South Side druggist.

HERE.

Gone from the bloom and the gladness,
Gone from the light and the cheer,
Gone from the love that was closest,
Gone from the life that were dear,
On rolls the world with its slugging—
On with its work, and its pride;
But I'll not meet again with my darling
In all the world, empty and wide.

Under the sod they have laid her,
Hallowed a chamber of rest,
Ne'er in my arms I'll find her,
Or be clasped to her dear loving breast.
Still are the feet that moved ever
On errands of mercy and grace;
Down in the gloom and the sadness
Hidden the dearly loved face.

Gone, and the home is so dreary;
Gone, and my heart is so rent;
Gone from the paths that she brightened,
Aye, with a tranquil content,
How shall I fare on, without her,
How reach the end of the day?
Sadness and darkness have gathered
Thick o'er my desolate way.

OVER THERE.

Entered the Mansions of Glory,
Safe in the bosom of God,
Walking the highway of Heaven,
Free where the ransomed have trod;
Free from the blighting of sorrow,
Pure from the staining of sin,
While after great tribulations,
Glad the Fair City within.

Satisfied there with the Saviour,
Past all the toil and the care,
Never again to be burdened,
Never a heartache to bear,
Young with a freshness immortal,
Glad with a rapture untold,
Strong with a life never ending,
They are home in the City of Gold.

Soul, in thy glorious raiment,
Friend, in thy radiance of joy,
Praises and blissful thanksgiving
Now all thy powers employ.
How shall I wait till I meet thee?
How I yearn for the day
When forth from the gloom and darkness
I, too, shall be beckoned away.
H. H. SANFORD.

Hope Crushed to Earth

Will rise again in the bosom of a dyspeptic wise enough to substitute for the pseudo-tonics, which have bamboozled him out of his belief in the possibility of cure, the real invigorant and stomachic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The bilious, the nervous, the dyspeptic, the rheumatic alike derive speedy benefit from this helpful botanic medicine. Persons suffering from indigestion will gain no positive permanent good from the fiery, unmediated stimulant of commerce, too often used recklessly. The Bitters is immeasurable to be preferred to these as a tonic, since its pure basis is modified by the conjunction with it of vegetable ingredients of the highest remedial excellence. Malaria is prevented and remedied by it, and it infuses vigor into the weak and sickly. A wine-glassful three times a day is the average dose.

Don't Want It.

Editor Roundabout:

The proposition of Councilman Marshall to issue $150,000 in bonds for the construction of brick streets is not likely to prove acceptable to tax-payers.

The reasons are plain and obvious and easily stated:

1st. The present tax rate is higher than it should be with proper economy in the administration of city affairs. Instead of $1.40 per annum the rate should not exceed $1.25. When the ability to pay becomes a recognized factor, then the property owner can more easily pay $1.40 than $1.25 now.

2d. It is not business-like nor reasonable to set about adding to public burdens when times are out of joint—business at a stand still—money going out and none coming in—and distressed humanity is daily begging charity to keep the wolf from the door. Wait, Mr. Councilmen, till matters are looking up instead of down, and when public spirit and enterprise can be backed up by ability to pay without incurring distress.

3d. The construction of $150,000 worth of brick streets involve bids and bidders, jobs and jobbery, inside work and shares in profit—vide Lexington.

When these things have to be faced, it is better that the city be removed a little further from the day when ballot box frauds exist as a part of the machinery of city elections and office tenure depends on such sickening basis. Don't put up a premium for vote stealers and their abettors to strive for. Wait awhile till the house is swept and disinfected and honest elections and the good of the citizens becomes the supreme law. ANTI TAX.
